We source our tea from the Rare Tea Company, who supply the world's best tea direct from farmers and their tea gardens. Henrietta Lovell's passion for tea led her to set up the Rare Tea Co. in 2004. Personally sourcing all of the tea the company sells, she travels to small mountain farms and works directly with the farmers, and her London office is full to the brim with teas from all over the world as well as a vast array of teaware to drink from. Affectionately known as the Tea-Lady, Henrietta recommends all of the teas and infusions on our menu.

Herbal infusions

English Peppermint £4.50
Tregothnan Estate, Cornwall, UK

A rare English peppermint grown in Cornwall on the Tregothnan Estate, established in 1335. Counter-intuitively, the menthol oils infuse more easily from the dried leaf, giving a brighter, cleaner flavour than fresh mint. This truly remarkable and unique peppermint infusion is a wonderful end to a meal.

Malawi Spearmint £4.50
Satemwa Estate, Malawi

The most elegant of mints, these gentle leaves make a remarkably smooth, well-rounded infusion. Grown on the rolling, green hills of the Shire Highlands of Malawi; they have a delicate softness while still revealing intense layers of flavour. It works particularly well as a digestif.

Sri Lankan Lemongrass £4.50
Amba Estate, Ravanna Falls

This complex and full-bodied lemongrass infusion is grown in a remote mountain tea garden above the Ravanna Falls, Sri Lanka. A rich and exceptionally bright herbal infusion with grassy notes of cut hay and lemon drops.

English Chamomile £4.50
Tregothnan Estate, Cornwall, UK

Grown in a botanical garden on the Tregothnan Estate in Cornwall, these whole chamomile flowers are picked with delicate blossoms and long stems, adding hay flavours and the aroma of English summer meadows. These chamomile flowers are extraordinarily sweet, pure and aromatic.

Loose leaf tea

Single Estate English Breakfast £4.50
Satemwa Estate, Malawi

A black tea, blended from selected fields and harvests across the family-run Satemwa Estate in the Shire Highlands of Malawi. Strong, rich and comforting with a deep malty finish. Perfect with milk.

Earl Grey £4.50
Satemwa Estate, Malawi and Reggio Calabria, Italy

A traditional Earl Grey, blended with single estate black tea and pure bergamot oil. A clean and exceptionally bright infusion with citrus notes, it can be enjoyed with or without milk, or with a twist of lemon zest.

2nd Flush Muscatel Darjeeling £4.50
Makaibari Estate, Darjeeling, India

This highly fragrant black tea is picked in the foothills of the Himalayas on one of the oldest and most beautiful estates in Darjeeling. The tea has a heady floral aroma with soft notes of muscatel grapes. Best served without milk.

Keemun £4.50
Anhui Province, China

A hand-crafted, black China tea, first enjoyed in the UK during the 19th-century. Soft and smooth with a hint of smoke from charcoal roasting. Best served without milk.

Whole Leaf Green £4.50
Fuding, Fujian Province, China

A delicate, Chinese green tea that is picked meticulously by hand. The leaves are fired in a wok over charcoal in the same manner and place as they have been for more than 3,000 years.

Jasmine Silver Tip £4.50
Fuding, Fujian Province, China

A delicate, white tea crafted entirely from spring buds. The leaves are not flavoured but scented with fresh jasmine flowers over six consecutive nights to create a delicate flavour. It was once the preserve of only the Chinese Imperial family.

Afternoon tea

The origins of afternoon tea

One of the most delicious of British traditions, afternoon tea is the signature moment in The Garden Room at The Principal York.

Afternoon tea was introduced in England by Anna, the seventh Duchess of Bedford, in 1840, as a way of curbing her hunger mid-afternoon. The Duchess asked that a tray of tea, bread and butter, and cake be brought to her room every afternoon. Later she asked friends to join her, and this pause for tea became a fashionable social event.

Head Pastry Chef Martyn Edmonds creates all of the beautiful cakes and pastries for The Garden Room, while Executive Chef Rhys Jackson oversees the sandwiches and the savoury course. With a passion for local, seasonal ingredients, together they prepare hundreds of afternoon teas every week.

The children of Applefields School

Our children's afternoon tea has been designed for children, by children.

To gain some inspiration for a new children's afternoon tea, Pastry Chef Martyn Edmonds asked the children of Applefields School – a special school for secondary-aged students who have a wide range of learning difficulties – to help him.

Martyn's brief was to be as 'colourful and imaginative as they could be', and the students didn't disappoint! They came back with lots of designs and Martyn picked his favourites to feature on the menu, alongside our home-made scones.
