Afternoon Tea

at The Capital Hotel

with Claire Clark

The Capital is known for honouring the tradition of English Afternoon Tea. Enjoy a delicious range of sandwiches and savouries made with bread from our own bakery, fresh scones served with traditional clotted cream and homemade jams and a selection of sweet treats created especially by acclaimed Pastry Chef, Claire Clark.

Claire Clark is one of the country's most renowned Pastry Chefs with a career encompassing time spent at some of the most prestigious restaurants, hotels and event caterers in England. Her career spans from the grandeur of The Ritz, Claridges and Intercontinental and Westbury hotels to the more diverse Sir Terence Conran's Bluebird, and from setting up a Pastry kitchen at the House of Commons to becoming Senior Pastry Lecturer at Le Cordon Bleu Culinary Institute.

In recognition of her commitment to her craft, Claire was awarded an MBE in the Queen's Birthday honours list of July 2011.
