The history of Ridgeview

Ridgeview was founded in 1994 by Mike and Chris Roberts and is dedicated to creating world class sparkling wines in the South Downs of England. Their vineyards specialise in growing classic grape varieties to make the highest quality bottle fermented sparkling wines. The world class status of the wines is reflected by the number of national & international medals and trophies they have received since the release of the first wines from the 1996 vintage. Ridgeview is regularly served by Her Majesty the Queen and the official reception sparkling wine at No. 10 government receptions.

Ridgeview Bloomsbury is clean, crisp, pure and refreshing with notes of lemon, citrus and gentle honey.

Ridgeview Fitzrovia Rosé has an abundance of freshness and finesse with pronounced characteristics of strawberry and redcurrant.

CHAMPAGNE
TAITTINGER
Reims

The history of Taittinger

Champagne Taittinger's origins date back to 1734 when the original house was founded by Jacques Fournieux. Today it remains one of the few top Houses actively owned and run by the family named on the label and to own a significant number of vineyards, providing control from the vine to the bottle. With many of the Champagnes being matured in the 4th century Taittinger's magnificent Roman cellars, the Hallmark of these wines is the high percentage of Chardonnay used, which gives them elegance, delicacy and finesse.

Taittinger is dry, light and graceful with small, fine bubbles. It's fresh, citrus fruit and subtle, weightier tones of peach and brioche combine to provide elegance.

LAINSTON HOUSE
AN EXCLUSIVE HOTEL

Welcome to Lainston House.

We sincerely hope that you have a relaxing time, enjoying one of England's fine traditions, dating back to the 1840's.

Here at Lainston, our Pastry Team, led by Nicolas Bouhelier is focused on providing a traditional setting and all the elements of an afternoon tea with a French twist.

Nicolas Bouhelier is from Besancon in France, has worked at Lainston since January 2015. He was classically French trained and worked previously at Le Manoir with Benoit Blin & Raymond Blanc.

Our tea is freshly made to order and we do hope you enjoy your time shared and then have the opportunity to roam the grounds or take a visit to the kitchen garden and meet our birds of prey. Maps of the grounds and further details on the history of the hotel are available at reception.

Hopefully, you will return for the next seasonal afternoon tea indulgence, a cookery school class with Nicolas or to enjoy a falconry experience. Why not consider purchasing a gift voucher for a friend's birthday or special occasion, available from reception.
