Afternoon Blend

A blend from the higher and lower regions of Ceylon delivering a light, refreshing flavour with real body. Of all Fortnum's tea, this makes the best iced tea, staying perfectly clear when chilled, but is equally good served the traditional way with a splash of milk.

Fortmason

This highly distinctive Fortnum's favourite is a blend of Indian and China teas, perfumed with the delicate aroma of orange blossom to produce a subtle, floral flavour

Christening

Created to mark the christening of HRH Prince George of Cambridge, this special tea Combines the wonderful muscatel notes of our Exceptional second flush Darjeeling with the Uplifting bergamot citrus note of our famous Earl Grey.

Queen Anne

Created in 1907, our bicentenary year, this popular blend commemorates the reigning sovereign in the year that Fortnum & Mason first began. The smooth blend of carefully selected TGfOP Assam and Ceylon FBOP teas produces a strong, smooth tea refreshing at any time of day.

Countess Grey

A twist on the traditional bergamot-infused blend, Countess Grey is based on well-twisted orange pekoe teas, lifted by classic bergamot and a light orange flavour. Its light and delicate character makes it ideal for morning or afternoon drinking, when the spirits require a little reviving.

Fresh Mint

Fresh peppermint leaves give this mint tea a pungent menthol aroma and flavor. This basic, caffeine-free mint tea recipe includes options to adapt it to your specific tastes The mint tea can be served hot or iced, sweetened or unsweetened, and with or without lemon.

Fresh Ginger

Treat yourself to a cup of fresh ginger tea, a healthy drink that's great for digestion. Here's how to make the tastiest ginger tea you've ever had!

Fresh Lemongrass & Pandan

Lemongrass and pandan tea is made using both the stalks of the lemongrass plant and the leaves of the pandan plant. On their own or when combined, these plants can improve a number of health conditions and help increase the level of wellness for almost everyone.
