Afternoon Tea

The team at Hope & Glory has made it their mission to help boost Britain's love affair with tea. Bringing innovative new blends and trusted favourites to The Waldorf Hilton, Hope & Glory is one of the only true family-owned businesses in the United Kingdom that offers the complete premium tea experience with their exquisitely prepared 100% organic blends.

The Waldorf, has an illustrious history and rich heritage dating back 111 years to 1908. It is with pleasure that we welcome you to experience a traditional afternoon tea in all its grandeur.

The creation of this English tradition was established by a friend of Queen Victoria, Anna Maria Russell, Duchess of Bedford. She noticed a long gap between lunch and late supper and found a light meal of tea, cakes and sandwiches was the perfect solution.

Today we know this as "Afternoon Tea".

Cream first or jam?

The debate continues and originates from the English counties, Devon and Cornwall. The traditional Devonshire scone is constructed by placing first the cream and then finishing with Jam on the top. However, in Cornwall they prefer and insist the jam is placed and topped with clotted cream.

How will you construct your scone today?
